What is Solar Matrix? Solar Matrix is a company specializing in solar energy provision. Our goal is to create a better world by generating power through wind energy. We aim for a clean and fresh society with minimal emissions, which is beneficial for both your and our health. Our customers are our top priority. Is matrix Australian solar a Chinese company? Matrix Australian Solar is an importer of Chinese solar panels. They do not manufacture panels in Australia or anywhere else. Because they import panels and brand them as Matrix Australian Solar, under Australian consumer law, Matrix is responsible for the panel's product and performance warranties and not the Chinese manufacturer. Is matrix solar still tier one? Currently Matrix Solar imports and sells CSUN panels. CSUN is a Chinese manufacturer that used to produce tier one panels, but they ran into financial difficulty and as a result there is now a question mark over their tier one status. But Bloomberg apparently still considered them to be tier one in May. Is matrix solar responsible for CSUN panels? Because they import panels and brand them as Matrix Australian Solar, under Australian consumer law, Matrix is responsible for the panel's product and performance warranties and not the Chinese manufacturer. Currently Matrix Solar imports and sells CSUN panels. What are Matrix panels? Matrix panels (BAL-29) are large scale detailing suited to modern minimalist and mixed material looks. They resist flaking, warping and swelling, as well as damage from moisture and termites. Who is matrix solar solutions?
